

AAFG Membership Meeting
March 7, 2022

6:30 - 7:00 p.m. available for social conversation within Zoom

Carol called the meeting to order at 7:00 p.m.

- Cindy Harris - Exhibits: Most of the information for Silver Maples (May/June 2022) is now on the members page of the AAFG Website.
- Anjanette - Nomination Committee Chair announced the following officer nominations
 - Pres = Anjanette Bunce
 - VP = Amy Cameron
 - VP for Membership = Anne Flora
 - Still seeking a VP for Programs
- Hearing no further nominations this will be our slate of officers for 2022.

Bob Masta introduced the Ellen Wilson Lecture Series. This is the 4th Lecture in this series created in memory of Ellen.

Mary Underwood introduced our evening's speaker, Carl Stewart. In "The Great Cloth" Carl Stewart (he/him) examines the influence of heritage fabrics on contemporary textile art, specifically the influence of Scottish estate tweeds on his project clò mòr, a response to the conditions of LGBTQ+ individuals living in one of the 72 countries around the world where homosexuality is criminalized. More about Carl can be found at his website: www.carlstewart.ca

Nancy facilitated the questions post-presentation. In the post-presentation discussion, Carl referenced an upcoming show where he will be joined by artists: Sue Lawty, Alice Fox, Alexia Kokozaki and Zainab Hussain.

76 participants attended this Zoom-only meeting/presentation

Carol spoke about upcoming programs:

- April 11th - online exhibit by AAFG members, "Think Spring"

The meeting was adjourned at 7:47 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sue McDowell